9. Scope and Operation of Agreement: This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the Employer and the Employee with respect to the matters contained herein and supersedes all previous verbal and written agreements. This agreement may be modified subsequently only in writing and signed by both parties. This agreement shall be deemed to operate from the year 2020 by the Employer of the Employee.

10. Brand Protection: In the interest of professional courtesy and mutual respect, employees are expected to address concerns about work, colleagues, and working conditions through the proper channels: supervisory, managerial, and/or Human Resources. Internet or social media posting of concerns or complaints are counter-productive and do not remedy legitimate concerns about working conditions. Posting complaints, concerns, or company practices or policies through social media while employed could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination, depending on the level of the infraction. While the right to affect change for working conditions is protected speech, the nature of the comment(s) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis to determine if any infraction has occurred. Employees who leave the company are asked to discuss any problems that led to their separation through the exit interview process, rather than online, on social media or third-party websites so they can be addressed by the appropriate managerial staff. Current and post-employment online complaints will result in an addendum to the reference check policy. References will reflect a staff member's online behavior to future employers.

11. Termination: I agree that upon the termination of my employment from Company:

a) I shall return to Company all documents and property of Company, even if not marked "confidential" or "proprietary," including but not necessarily limited to: drawings, blueprints, reports, manuals, correspondence, customer and/or investor lists, computer programs, and all other materials and all copies thereof relating in any way to Company's business, or in any way obtained by me during the course of employment. I further agree that I shall not retain copies. notes or abstracts of the foregoing.

b) The Company may notify any future or prospective employer or third party of the existence of this Agreement. The Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief for any or threatened breach of this Agreement, in addition to all other available remedies, including the recovery of monetarydamages.

c) This Agreement shall be binding upon me and my personal representatives and successors-in-interest, and shall inure to the benefit of Company, its successors and assigns.
